

Indiana Department of Education

SUPPORTING STUDENT SUCCESS

MEMORANDUM

TO: Indiana High School Principals and Counselors

FROM: Matt Fleck, Coordinator, High School Learning

SUBJECT: Webcast on State Board of Education Rule Waivers

DATE: April 24, 2009

A Webcast for Indiana high school principals and counselors titled “State Board of Education Rule Waivers” will be held Monday, April 27th at 1:30 p.m. (EDT). Jeff Zaring and Matt Fleck with the Indiana Department of Education will be answering questions about the waiver of the seat time requirements and other recent actions by the State Board.

You can view the Webcast at <http://media.doe.in.gov/live/2009-04-27-SBRules.html>

Before or during the Webcast, questions may be emailed to mfleck@doe.in.gov and answered on the program. Video of the full webcast will also be available on the IDOE Web site for future viewing after the Webcast.

The Indiana Department of Education will be streaming a live video test feed today at <http://media.doe.in.gov/live/2009-04-27-SBRules.html>. It is suggested you test the computer you plan to be using beforehand. If you are having trouble viewing the test feed, please seek assistance from your technology support team before contacting IDOE as they know more about your specific computer and network capabilities. You will also find technical support information on the Web page.
